

How to Report

You can report by:

- Stopping in your local Public Assistance office
- Calling your local Public Assistance office
- Filling out and mailing the Change Report Form

How We Use the Reported Information

We use the information you give us to determine that you are still eligible and the amount of your benefits. Increases in your expenses or decreases in your household's income could mean higher benefits.

When to Report

If you receive Food Stamps, Denali Care, Denali KidCare or Adult Public Assistance, you must report changes within 10 days from when you know about them.

If you get Alaska Temporary Assistance, you must report within 5 days if a child moves out of your home. Report all other changes within 10 days
